

You have to validate every step before and after and relate the invoice to the order. And later the payment and so on. Each step is related to the process.